

TELCON

October 13, 1973

Amb. Dobrynin - Secretary Kissinger

K: Senator Jackson is making a major speech attacking me personally for calling the Soviet Union moderate . told me in '71 that... My failure to stand firm, now Kissinger tells the American people ... US moderate, international Soviet... moderate. forced to admit.... and so on and so forth. I can tell you what's going to happen.... Just wanted to give you some sense of it... Jewish community excited by what I have been doing.

D: I know about the Jewish community.. how they feel. I understand.

K: I just give it to your... for the good will which exists here, Jackson, who used to be a personal friend makes a public attack on me.

D: What could be done, I just want to ask you again

K: ..... can be done.... tomorrow when American airplanes get there. We are keeping supplies to a rather small proportion. Second, Security Council resolution 242. In accordance with provisions and principles of Security Council Resolution 242. I am not proposing it, I know Gromyko doesn't like 2442. This will become a major domestic issue.

D: Find a way for us to understand your problem. Henry, what could be done. .... I understand, but Sadat said one thing... changed his mind. But what can we do, can we say "Look here...."

K: I actually believe ... serious .... what if we now don't get into confrontation between us. ....

D: You prefer a simple cease fire?

K: ... but if you want some reference to an appropriate resolution that's fine. If I have any ideas on complete text I will call you.

This document is from the holdings of:

The National Security Archive

Suite 701, Gelman Library, The George Washington University

2130 H Street, NW, Washington, D.C., 20037

Phone: 202/994-7000, Fax: 202/994-7005, nsarchiv@gwu.edu